

The “onion” of student-community engagement:

This is an attempt to draw our vision for the pedagogical process of bringing students into engagement with food dignity issues and community organizations. We envision it happening over several years.

We aim for our work in all its layers to be always in communication with and responsive to the larger FD network and the FD organizations in Tompkins County.

